Guidance and Legislation

The Safeguarding Children and Adults at Risk of Abuse or Neglect policy should be read in conjunction with a number of additional policies and legislative documents which are listed below.

Children Act 1989 – provides legislation to ensure that the welfare and developmental needs of children are met, including their need to be protected from harm. The welfare of the child is paramount.

Children Act 2004 – Section 11 places a duty on all organisations to ensure that their functions are discharged with regard to the need to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. The Act offered the legislative framework for the implementation of the five Every Child Matters principles which are considered to be integral to achieving positive outcomes and life chances for all children and young people from birth into adulthood. These principles are:

- Be healthy
- Staying safe
- Enjoying and achieving
- Making a positive contribution
- Achieving economic wellbeing

Working Together to Safeguard Children 2015 - this statutory guidance as revised by the government in 2015 details the roles and responsibilities of all agencies with the aim of promoting effective working together to promote the welfare and safety of children. Care Act 2014 – builds on recent reviews and reforms, replacing previous legislation to provide a coherent approach to adult social care in England. Part one of the Act (and its statutory guidance) consolidates and modernises the framework of care and support law; it set out new duties for local authorities and partners, and new rights for service users and carers. The Act aims to achieve:

- clearer, fairer care and support;
- wellbeing – physical, mental and emotional – of both the person needing care and their carer;
- prevention and delay of the need for care and support;
- putting people in control of their own care.
