2001 & 2011 Census

The Census which takes place every ten years provides the most authoritative statistics on our local population. The 2011 Census work has started but the first results from this will not be available until September 2012, and this will initially be at a local authority level. Further results will be released by the Office for National Statistics throughout 2013/14. Therefore, many of the statistics throughout this report refer to the 2001 Census.

Average Life Expectancy (1999 – 2003)

Source: Local Knowledge; Life Expectancy at Birth

Standardised Mortality Ratio (SMR) (1999 – 2003)

Source: Local Knowledge; Standardised Mortality Ratios

The Standardised Mortality Ratio compares overall mortality in a locality with that for the UK as a whole. The ratio expresses the number of deaths in a locality as a percentage of the hypothetical number that would have occurred if the local population had experienced the sex/age specific rates of the UK in that year. The lower the figure, the lower the relative mortality.

In the table below the Health Intelligence and Clinical Evidence Team, Staffordshire Public Health have summarised some of the key health indicators. Those shaded red are statistically worse than the England average and those shaded green are statistically better. The following measurements are statistically better for those living in Rolleston on Dove:

- All-age all cause mortality rate per 100,000 population
- Premature mortality (rate per 100,000 population aged under 75)
- Premature mortality from cancers (rate per 100,000 people aged under 75)
- Smoking prevalence - adults (Mosaic estimates)
- % of adult population eating five or more portions of fruit or vegetables a day
- Percentage of adult population doing no exercise in the last month.

Private Sector House Condition Survey 2008

The 2008 House Condition Survey was distributed to a random sample of 1,250 private sector households and entailed full internal and external surveys plus supporting interviews with the occupying households. At the time of the survey there were 41,968 private dwellings, 38,849 of which were occupied (92.6%) and 3,119 (7.4%) were vacant. Of these 14,048 households (36.2%) are elderly and 12,464 households are economically vulnerable (32.1%). There is a mixed age profile with 16,596 dwellings (39.5%) constructed pre-1945 and 11,434 dwellings (27.2%) constructed pre-1919.

Housing conditions in the Borough are better than the national average for private housing; however, housing condition problems remain significant:

- 13,445 dwellings (32.0%) are non-decent
- 8,137 dwellings (19.4%) exhibit Category I hazards

	Category I Hazards	Non-decent Homes	Decent homes Energy Failure Rates	Fuel Poverty
Burton & Horninglow	30.3	50.3	25.9	39.2
Inner Burton (Anglesey, Eton Park and Shobnall)	29.9	39.9	18.8	41.7
Rural North (Abbey, Churnet & Weaver)	23.9	31.3	22.5	33.6
Rural South (Bagots, Crown, Needwood, Rolleston on Dove, Tutbury & Outwoods, Yoxall)	21.0	39.5	26.9	44.6
Winshill & Stapenhill	14.5	23.5	12.3	32.9
Uttoxeter (Heath & Town)	12.0	22.8	9.6	27.2
Outer Burton (Branston, Brizlincote and Stretton)	8.4	18.5	11.1	27.2
Borough Average	19.4	32.0	18.1	35.5

Category I hazards

These include falls on steps/stairs, excess cold, dampness/mould and crowding/space. Category I hazards are not evenly distributed across the Borough but are higher across the Inner Burton and Burton/Horninglow areas

Non-decent homes

The most common reasons for failing the Decent Homes Standard relate to energy efficiency and Category I hazards. Patterns of non-decent housing are similar to those for Category I hazards with higher rates for the Inner Burton and Burton/Horninglow areas. Rates of non decency are also higher in the Rural South. Poor housing conditions within the Borough are associated with households in social and economic disadvantage. A significant proportion of households living in non-decent homes are made up of the elderly (36.2%) and the economically vulnerable (48.8%).

Home energy efficiency

The home energy efficiency rates in private housing in the Borough are above the national average. East Staffordshire has an average SAP Rating of 56 compared to an average of 47 for all private housing in England. 7,585 dwellings fail the Decent Homes energy requirements representing 18.1% of all private dwellings.

Fuel Poverty

13,805 households in the Borough (35.5%) are in Fuel Poverty. The highest rates of fuel poverty are associated with Inner Burton and the Rural South. Rates of fuel poverty are also higher for households in pre-war housing, terraced housing and converted flats. Households most affected include young single households, single parent families and the elderly.

Key points from the 2008 House Condition Survey show that when compared to the East Staffordshire average, private housing stock in the Rural South is:

- More likely to exhibit Category I Hazards
- More likely to be non-decent
- More likely to fail the Decent Homes Energy Rating
- More likely to be in Fuel Poverty

Index of Local Deprivation 2010

The Indices of Deprivation 2010 (ID 2010) is a measure of multiple deprivation at a small area level. The small geographical areas the ID 2010 is based upon are called Lower Layer Super Output Areas (LSOA's) and each account for between 1,000 and 3,000 people. The purpose of basing the Indices upon LSOA's is to pinpoint small areas of deprivation that may otherwise be hidden within larger wards. The ID 2010 consists of an overall measure of deprivation and seven specific aspects – Income, Employment, Health and Disability, Education, Skills and Training, Barriers to Housing and Services, Living Environment and also Crime.

There are 32,482 LSOA's in England and two of these are located within Rolleston on Dove ward. Below is a summary of the key points arising from the ID 2010 for Rolleston on Dove's LSOA's. If the LSOAs fall within the top 10% or top 20% most deprived they are considered here to be deprived:

- Overall Deprivation: One of Rolleston on Dove's two LSOAs has seen a deterioration in its ranking since 2007. However, neither area is deprived and in fact one of the areas is within the top 10% least deprived LSOAs in England.
- Income Deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences income deprivation and one falls within the top 10% least deprived in terms of income.
- Employment Deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences employment deprivation and one falls within the top 20% least deprived.
- Health & Disability Deprivation Neither LSOA experiences health & disability deprivation and one falls within the top 20% least deprived.
- Education, skills and training deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences education, skills and training deprivation and one falls within the top 10% least deprived.
- Barriers to housing and services deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences barriers to housing and services deprivation and one falls within the top 20% least deprived.
- Crime Deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences crime deprivation and they fall within the top 10% and 20% least deprived.
- Living environment deprivation: Neither LSOA experiences living environment deprivation.

Rolleston on Dove ward does not exhibit deprivation according to the measurements outlined above. In fact, it's LSOAs are more likely to fall within the top 10% and top 20% least deprived.

The Place Survey 2008 – 2009

All local authorities are required to undertake a Place Survey containing a standard set of questions which are designed to capture local people's views, experiences and perceptions. The aim is to use the findings to ensure that improvements for an area reflect local views and preferences. A random sample of 3,000 residents (aged 18 and over) were selected and 1,134 responses were received – a response rate of 38%. The findings set out below were calculated as a proportion of respondents who answered each question and exclude those who did not reply. The tables include a column for ranking within East Staffordshire, with a ranking of 1 being the most satisfied and 21 being the least satisfied.

The Local Area

Respondents were asked to select five factors they felt were most important in making somewhere a good place to live and they were then asked to select the five that were most in need of improvement in their local area. The results for East Staffordshire as a whole are set out below:

Most important	Most in need of improvement
The level of crime (65%)	Activities for teenagers (47%)
Clean streets (45%)	Level of traffic congestion (37%)
Health services (41%)	Road and pavement repairs (31%)
Affordable decent housing (36%)	The level of crime (26%)
Education provision (28%)	Public transport (25%)

Only one factor (the level of crime) is thought to be both important and in need of improvement which suggest the Council and its partners are performing well in the areas considered to be the most important to the local residents.

Respondents were asked how satisfied or dissatisfied they are with their local area as a place to live. In Rolleston on Dove 99% of respondents were very/fairly satisfied, which is above the Borough average (79%). In fact it has the highest satisfaction level of all the wards. The survey found that older respondents were more likely to be satisfied with their local area than younger respondents, which fits with the age structure of the ward. Rolleston on Dove has a higher proportion of residents of pensionable age than the Borough average.

Respondents were asked how satisfied or dissatisfied they are with their home as a place to live. In Rolleston on Dove 93% of respondents were very/fairly satisfied which is above the Borough average (90%). The survey found that home owners were more likely to be satisfied with their home than those who were renting. Rolleston on Dove has a higher proportion of home owners than the Borough average (2001 Census).

Respondents were asked how strongly they feel they belong to their immediate neighbourhood. In Rolleston on Dove 70% of respondents feel they very/fairly strongly belong which is above the Borough average (61%). The survey found that older respondents (65+) were more likely to feel they belong to their immediate neighbourhood and those who rent privately were less likely to feel so.

% of respondents who are:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire	England Average	Comparison with England

Local Decision Making

The Government aims to build communities where individuals are empowered to make a difference both to their own lives and to the area in which they live. A key indicator of this is the extent to which people feel able to influence decisions affecting their local area. Respondents were asked if they feel they can influence decisions in their locality. Rolleston on Dove respondents are more likely to feel they can than the Borough average.

% of respondents who feel:	Rolleston	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire	England Average	Comparison with England
They can influence decisions in their locality	36	26	↑	5	29	↑

Respect and Consideration

Compared to the Borough average Rolleston on Dove respondents are more likely to score positively in the following areas:

- Parents take responsibility for the behaviour of their children – the rationale behind this question is to focus local authorities and their partners on supporting effective parenting and to take action to ensure parents are held responsible where their children behave in an unacceptable manner.
- People from different backgrounds get on well together – this measure is widely recognised as a key indicator of a cohesive society. The Local Government White Paper sets out the aim of creating strong and cohesive communities.
- People do not treat each other with respect and consideration – the rationale behind this question is to encourage local authorities and their partners to take action to promote strong communities with shared values where community members treat each other with respect and consideration.
- They have been treated with respect and consideration by local public services – local authorities are encouraged to consider this indicator in terms of narrowing gaps between perceptions for different group(s).

% of respondents who feel:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire	England Average	Comparison with England
Parents take responsibility for the behaviour of their children	51	30	↑	3	30	↑
People from different backgrounds get on well together	81	71	↑	5 (joint)	76	↑

Community Safety

Respondents were asked how safe they feel when outside in their local area during the day and after dark. Across the Borough those who were dissatisfied with their local area as a place to live were more likely to feel unsafe.

Rolleston on Dove respondents were more likely to feel safe after dark and during the day than the Borough average. In fact Rolleston on Dove respondents were the most likely to feel safe during the day.

% of respondents who feel:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire
Safe after dark	79	54	↑	4
Safe during the day	99	90	↑	1 (joint)

Anti-social Behaviour

Respondents were asked to think about their local area and to say whether each of a number of different types of antisocial behaviour was a very/fairly big problem. Local authorities are the key partner in tackling ASB and have statutory duties to enforce ASB legislation. Rolleston on Dove scores positively compared to the Borough average for all the aspects of anti-social behaviour listed in the questionnaire.

% of respondents who feel the following ASB is a problem:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire	England Average	Comparison with England
Noisy neighbours or loud parties	3	13	↑	4	N/A	N/A

People being drunk or rowdy in public	5	24	↑	3 (joint)	29	↑
Abandoned or burnt out cars	3	5	↑	10 (joint)	N/A	N/A

Confidence in Police

Respondents were asked whether they agree or disagree that the police and other local public services seek people's views about dealing with ASB and crime in their local area. This measure is being employed as a proxy to measure confidence in local agencies to tackle the community safety issues that matter to local people. Rolleston on Dove respondents were more likely to agree with this statement (33%) than the Borough average (26%).

% of respondents who agree the police & other local services are:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire	England Average	Comparison with England
Seeking people's views about dealing with ASB & crime	33	26	↑	5 (joint)	25	↑
Successfully dealing with ASB & crime	43	26	↑	2	26	↑

Respondents were then asked whether they agree or disagree that the police and other local public services are successfully dealing with ASB and crime in their local area. Rolleston on Dove respondents were more likely to agree with this statement (43%) than the Borough average (26%).

Additional Questions

East Staffordshire Borough Council added additional questions to the Place Survey about the local bus services. Older respondents were more likely to be satisfied with each element than younger respondents as were non disabled respondents compared with disabled respondents.

Rolleston on Dove scores below the Borough average for satisfaction in terms of the following aspects of the local bus service:

- The frequency of buses
- The bus service overall

% of respondents who are satisfied with:	Rolleston on Dove	East Staffordshire	Comparison with East Staffordshire	Rank within East Staffordshire
